Professional Experience

Senior Consultant | Elevance Health

February 2026 - Present

- Identify high-value stakeholder groups and prioritize outreach based on business need, timing, and likelihood of productive conversation.
- Translate ambiguous business questions into concise discovery topics, meeting objectives, and decision-ready follow-up actions.
- Personalize LinkedIn and email outreach around the recipient's operating context instead of relying on generic messaging.
- Run stakeholder conversations that surface goals, constraints, decision criteria, and the path required to move an opportunity forward.
- Prepare concise presentations that connect a proposed solution to the stakeholder's business priorities and practical next steps.
- Coordinate terms, open questions, and commitments across stakeholders so discussions progress toward a clear decision and launch plan.
- Capture market feedback from conversations and turn recurring themes into recommendations for positioning, outreach, and follow-up.
- Maintain disciplined follow-up across multi-step opportunities, documenting commitments and re-engaging stakeholders at appropriate points.

Senior Consultant | Optum

October 2024 - February 2026

- Built targeted stakeholder lists by researching organizations, roles, business priorities, and the owners or decision-makers most relevant to a conversation.
- Used structured outreach sequences across LinkedIn and email, adapting language to the prospect's business model and likely concerns.
- Qualified conversations through consultative questions covering current operating gaps, growth objectives, urgency, and fit.
- Facilitated video-call discussions with senior stakeholders and converted conversation notes into specific next steps and follow-up materials.

- Supported presentations by organizing the business case, anticipated objections, and proof points needed for an informed partner discussion.
- Advanced opportunities through review cycles by clarifying responsibilities, timing, decision criteria, and unresolved terms.
- Synthesized stakeholder feedback into concise internal updates that helped refine positioning and address patterns in the market.
- Balanced near-term meeting generation with long-cycle relationship development, keeping potential partners engaged between decision points.

Consultant | LatentView

June 2022 - August 2024

- Analyzed market and account information to identify priority segments, relevant organizations, and contacts worth pursuing.
- Developed personalized first-touch messaging that connected the conversation to the prospect's business context and likely value drivers.
- Conducted discovery conversations to understand operational pain points and determine whether a follow-up or partner discussion was warranted.
- Prepared meeting briefs and presentation content that made complex recommendations understandable to business owners and senior stakeholders.
- Managed follow-up across extended sales and partnership cycles, keeping open questions, commitments, and timing visible.
- Recorded voice-of-market observations and translated them into recommendations for target-market focus and outreach refinement.
- Coordinated with internal contributors to align proposed solutions, commercial considerations, and launch-readiness requirements.

Consultant | Reylon Softech

June 2018 - June 2022

- Researched prospective organizations and decision-makers to build focused outreach lists for business conversations.
- Engaged prospects through professional email and LinkedIn communication, tailoring messages to business needs and industry context.
- Used discovery questions to clarify objectives, current processes, constraints, and the people involved in a buying decision.
- Supported business presentations by organizing needs, proposed value, questions, and agreed follow-up actions.
- Maintained consistent follow-through across opportunities that required multiple conversations before a decision.
- Documented prospect feedback and recurring objections so future outreach could be more relevant and precise.
